The representative may offer products and services other than investment advisory services. The amount of compensation the representative earns for advisory services may be more or less than compensation received for non-advisory services. This may pose a potential conflict of interest to recommend products based on the compensation received rather than your needs. When CGMI or one of its affiliates identifies an actual conflict of interest, we will strive to mitigate that conflict or disclose it to our clients. For additional information about CGMI compensation please refer to the CGMI Form ADV Part 2 brochure.

Additional Compensation

CGMI has implemented policies and procedures intended to ensure that CGMI and its employees avoid actual or perceived conflicts of interest when giving or receiving gifts and entertainment from relevant parties and to comply with all applicable laws and regulations by limiting the maximum value that any individual is permitted to receive in any calendar year.

Supervision

CGMI – Citi Private Bank supervises Christopher Ponte and monitors the advice that the representative provides to clients through regular reviews of client accounts and activity for adherence to client investment objectives and Citi Private Bank's internal policies and procedures. The name and contact information for the person responsible for supervising Christopher Ponte's investment advisory activities is Christine Murray, Supervisory Principal, at (212) 559-2922.
