IT’S NOT ONLY ABOUT MONEY

Green Projects – “More Trees Thanks to You” and “Earth Week”

For several years now, Citi Handlowy has been actively involved in numerous projects carried out with the objective to protect the natural environment. The “More Trees Thanks to You” initiative launched five years ago is aimed at encouraging our Customers to choose electronic bank statements instead of those in paper form. The results have been impressive and the Customer's involvement does not let us give up the project. As many as 520,000 trees have been planted thanks to our Customers! Green ideas have also been promoted among the Bank’s employees during the “Earth Week” project. The Environmental Management Plan implemented in 2007 led to a 50% decrease in the amount of municipal waste produced by the Bank, along with a drop of 31% in water and of almost 15% in electricity consumption. The key objectives of the Plan are introduction of selective collection of waste as well as reduction of electricity consumption and CO2 emissions. As time went by, water and paper saving initiatives have been incorporated into the Plan. In accordance with the underlying guidelines, all locations of the Bank are monitored on an ongoing basis in terms of electricity, water, natural gas and heat consumption, including the amount and type of waste produced and greenhouse gases emitted. Not only does the “Earth Week” project focus on educational activities but it also involves green initiatives such as provision of special containers for hazardous waste (including light bulbs, fluorescent lamps, used electronic and electrical devices). Moreover, a special waste segregation system has been introduced in all Citi Handlowy office buildings across Poland. Its high effectiveness has been ensured in particular by removal of rubbish bins located under each desk and their replacement with “waste segregation stations” consisting of three separate containers for paper, plastic/glass/metal and municipal waste. What is important, the Bank’s green attitude and environmental protection projects have been recognized as Citi Handlowy has been awarded the “Green Office” certificate. Last but not least, we are the only entity in Poland responsible for implementation of the extended scope of the Carbon Disclosure Project.

Plant trees with Citi Handlowy! It is worth choosing electronic bank statements instead of those in paper form. The paper statement resignation form is available here in the e-mail files/statements section. For more information on the “More Trees Thanks to You” initiative go to www.citihandlowy.pl/las
