The Museum of Contemporary Art Australia and Citi partner to present Pipilotti Rist: Sip my Ocean to Sydney

Sydney, 1 November, 2017: Today, the exhibition Pipilotti Rist: Sip my Ocean opens to the public at the Museum of Contemporary Art Australia with Citi as the Presenting Partner.

Swiss artist Pipilotti Rist has achieved international acclaim as one of the pioneers of experimental video art and multimedia installations. Incorporating video and sculpture, her dazzling environments plunge viewers into colourful kaleidoscopic projections which explore the relationship between nature, the body and technology.

Exclusive to Sydney, Sip my Ocean marks the artist’s most comprehensive exhibition of work ever to be staged in Australia, and the fourth MCA exhibition supported by Citi as Presenting Partner.

In 2014, Citi supported the MCA to bring the art of Chuck Close from New York, followed in 2015 with the art of Grayson Perry from London, and Tatsuo Miyajima from Japan in 2016.

Citi Australia CEO, David Livingstone, said, “Pipilotti Rist is one of the world’s most exciting contemporary artists, and we are thrilled to support the latest exhibition from this renowned pioneer of the art world.”

MCA Director, Elizabeth Ann Macgregor OBE, welcomed Citi as Presenting Partner. “Through our partnership with Citi, we have been able to bring the world’s most outstanding exhibitions exclusively to Sydney, Australia. We’d like to thank Citi for its ongoing commitment to supporting important exhibitions of the art of our time.”
Citi clients will receive a number of benefits as part of Citi’s sponsorship. Two tickets can be purchased for the price of one here or by contacting their Citi relationship manager. From Wednesday to Sunday, Citi cardholders will receive two complimentary glasses of McWilliam’s wine with any purchase of an Over the Rainbow Tasting Board in the MCA’s Colour Fields Bar as part of the Citibank Dining Program.

The exhibition closes on 18 February, 2018.

About The Museum of Contemporary Art Australia:
A bold, new and significantly expanded Museum of Contemporary Art Australia was unveiled to the public in March 2012 and has since attracted over 3.2 million visitors. The redevelopment has transformed the MCA, with spacious new galleries including an entire floor dedicated to the MCA Collection; the National Centre for Creative Learning with state-of-the-art technology; public spaces that embrace one of the world’s most famous locations, and a series of site-specific artists’ commissions. Dedicated to exhibiting, collecting and interpreting the work of today’s artists from across Australia and internationally, the Museum was recently included in a list of 100 must-see museums worldwide.
