The representative may offer products and services other than investment advisory services. The amount of compensation the representative earns for advisory services may be more or less than compensation received for non-advisory services. This may pose a potential conflict of interest to recommend products based on the compensation received rather than your needs. When CGMI or one of its affiliates identifies an actual conflict of interest, we will strive to mitigate that conflict or disclose it to our clients. For additional information about CGMI compensation please refer to the CGMI Form ADV Part 2 brochure.

Additional Compensation

CGMI has adopted policies that prohibit the acceptance of gifts and entertainment that may influence the investment advice provided to clients. Consistent with these policies, First Name Last Name is permitted to receive gifts of up to $100 and receive ordinary and customary business entertainment, subject to a limit of $250 per person per event to a maximum of $1,000 of meals and entertainment expenses per person per vendor.

Supervision

CGMI supervises Christopher Murre-Philippsen and monitors the advice that the representative provides to clients through regular reviews of client accounts and activity for adherence to client investment objectives and Citigold Private Client's internal policies and procedures. The name and contact information for the person responsible for supervising Christopher Murre-Philippsen's investment advisory activities is Jose J. Colon, Supervisory Principal, at (305) 347-1870.
